

The first SPAR supermarket opens in Cyprus

A new daily shopping experience

On Friday 21 September, at the start of a three-day celebration, the first SPAR supermarket in Cyprus welcomed customers to 27, Grivas Dighenis Avenue in the Drosia area of central Larnaca, offering them a fresh and comprehensive new daily shopping option, in 1,200 sq.m. of space with easy access and a generous parking area.

Setting the bar high and giving top priority to enduring global values such as excellence in quality, variety, freshness, price and service, Spar is here to give Cypriot consumers a new shopping experience in pleasant surroundings.

At SPAR, shoppers can find everything they want quickly and easily a comfortable environment where the staff know their products and care about their customers. At SPAR, shopping is not a chore but a positive daily mood-changing experience.

With particular emphasis on fresh produce, it offers a full range of products of all types and well-known brands.

In the bakery, the butchery, the fish market, the fruit section and the delicatessen, quality, variety and freshness play the leading roles.

At SPAR, special emphasis is also given to its own label products across all categories, combining excellent quality and low prices.

Visitors to the supermarket can also enjoy a coffee, made with care at a great price in the pleasant environment of the SPAR Café.

SPAR supermarkets have become favourites among local communities in 48 countries, serving more than 13 million consumers daily in more than 12,500 stores and cooperating with thousands of reliable suppliers and partners.

September 2018